

*"I am the vine; you are the branches.
 If a man remains in me and I in him,
 he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing."

Anniversary 2009 Issue

Happy 8th Anniversary WCFI

Ray-An Fuentes was back to celebrate with us on our 8th church anniversary last Sep. 6. He challenged us to make sure that we are building the true church. We had more than 150 people who came to the worship service. The celebration continued at the Cranbury Village Park where the attendees were treated to a sumptuous feast. Two days later, Ray-An taught on the "Recession-Proof Life" and numerous CDs of the teaching have sold since. Pray with us that the Lord will continue to look upon our church with favor as we face another year of ministry.

Family Day 2009

Our church sure knows how to have fun. Last Aug. 22, we went to NJ shore for our annual Family Day picnic in Harvey Cedars. It's obvious from the photos that we had a great time. Why not? There were two lechons and a host of other mouth-watering dishes. We were also treated to songs of praise from our band. But there was serious stuff, too. Six people were baptized in water: Romnick Castillo, Soren Columbano, Jan Paul & Joshua Diaz, Prosie Palad and Danzel Serrano. Praise God that despite the bad weather around, we had a perfect summer day.

Fil-Am Picnic 2009

For the first time in years, the church participated in the annual picnic sponsored by the Filipino American Association of Central NJ last June 28. Dino Landingin was instrumental in giving us this opportunity to minister. Through the songs of our P&W band and the dance number performed by our pretty young girls, we were able to introduce our church to the community. The booth that we put up showcased our beliefs. Pens, booklets and other reading materials were given away. All in all, it was a great day for Filipinos living in Central NJ and a great testimony to the goodness of God who is alive in us and in our congregation.

Rev-Gen 2009

From the fields of Frenchtown, NJ, our youth enjoyed the Labor Day weekend at Revelation Generation, an annual Christian music festival that featured Rock, Urban, Pop Artists, Indie, Emmo, Metal and so many more (Sep. 5). In photo (clockwise): Rachel, Josh, Adriel, John, Tito Randy, Mom Linda, Prosie, Lindsay, Patricia and Pauline. Not in photo were Danny and Tyler.

Best Years Ministry

To the fields of Princeton, NJ, members of the Best Years Senior Ministry went apple-picking last Sep. 19 at the Terhune Orchard. They started the breezy Saturday morning with hot coffee and devotion led by Sis. Lavinia Ferrer and ended it with bags full of delicious apples. In photo (L to R): Merced Guce, Candy Diaz, Angel Llanes, Baby Castro and Lavinia Ferrer.

Men's Fellowship

It was Vincent & Maggie Hernandez' turn to host the men's fellowship last Aug. 8. They treated the men to a BIG Filipino breakfast so much so that when Dino started the Bible Study, most were already sleepy. Costas, who drove more than 2 hours from his home, thought the fellowship was worth the effort. Home improvement projects and sports, especially golf, were still the hot topics of conversation.

Salu-salo with Ptr. Mando

Welcoming new families to our church has been a tradition that we have learned to love. Last Sep. 27, we had lunch with the families of Vic Amparo, Joseph & Phines Carreon, Costas & Marites Chantzis, and Arlene Masigla. In photo (L to R): Joseph & Phines Carreon, Patricia Masigla, Ptr. Mando, Flor Villahermosa (Arlene's mom), Pauline Masigla and Vic Amparo. Unable to come were Joannah Amparo and Massie Masigla.
